TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1745.

of a Private Letter from Paris, dated February 1, 1745.

HERE has hardly ever been known a Time in which our Miniſtry were more embarraſs'd than they are at preſent, or had more intricate Affairs upon their Hands; which you will eaſily credit, when I mention to you only Three, perhaps, out of Threeſcore. The Firſt is the Company; the Fall of their Actions, having all Sort of Credit throughout the Kingdom. Tencin would have prevented this, by throwing Sum neceſſary for the carrying on the Com- of that Company into the Service of the cur- ; but the Comptroller-General of the Fi- objected that the Thing was impoſſible; that ey he had already undertaken to raiſe, muſt be by ſuch a Multitude of Edicts, that ſuppoſing le to find Funds capable of ſupplying what the is Company demanded, it was by no Means to enlarge the Liſt of Impoſitions by intro- them at preſent; but Time, and the preſent of the Company's Affairs, have ſhewn, that was in the right; ſince all the Eloquence World will never more ſatisfy the Proprietors Company; who only diſſemble their Uneaſineſs , that they may have an Opportunity of with their Actions at a tolerable Price.

ext Source of Trouble here, is the importunate s of the Court of Spain; which are of ſuch e, as our Miniſtry can hardly comply with. n the firſt Place, demand a General that will der the Duke de Montemar, or the Count de which clearly excludes both the Prince of nd the Marſhal Maillebois. They inſiſt next, ſending 27,000 Foot, and 9000 Horſe and Dra- to Italy, together with a large Train of heavy ; which, conſidering the Employment we e for our Troops elſewhere, is abſolutely im- Yet, as exorbitant as theſe Demands are, e them ſtill higher. In ſhort, they will have s in the Mediterranean, and a Third in the dies; the former to conſiſt of 24, and the nine Ships of the Line, beſides Frigates and Veſſels. Our Miniſtry are endeavouring to e Prince of Campo Florido to moderate Terms, being very willing to do all he can, provided n would do the like; and will even undertake ſh the whole Naval Force they ask, provided t of Spain will grant him a Subſidy of three of Pieces of Eight towards the Charges of which they are likewiſe willing ſhall be de- from the great Debt that has been ſo long due ain.

Third, and not the leaſt troubleſome, is what the Court of Munich. It is now no longer why the Count de Bavier left the Court of Emperor ſo precipitately. He propoſed, it to his Imperial Majeſty to retire during the to Franckfort, with an Offer, in that Caſe, of l the French Forces in Germany at his Diſ- This he abſolutely refuſed, and perſiſted in his on of remaining at Munich. His Excellency taken ſome Pains to diſcover the Motives he Conduct ſo extraordinary, found that he had Aſſurances from the Court of Vienna, that ld not be diſturbed in that Reſidence; upon he demanded an Eclairciſſment; and the Fact row'd, quitted that Court directly. We have ce informed by M. Chavigny, that the Preli- of a Treaty had been actually ſettled before h of that Monarch, at Warſaw; and that no- tarded the Concluſion of it, but his Imperial s inſiſting, peremptorily, that the King of houd be included.'

GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom theſe Preſents ſhall come, greeting. Whereas our Truſty and Well-beloved John Newbery, of London, Bookſeller, hath humbly repreſented unto Us that he hath been at very great Expence, and much Labour, in Compiling a Work, entitled, The Circle of the Sciences; or, The Compendious Library: Digeſted in a Method entirely New, whereby each Branch of polite Literature is render'd extremely eaſy and inſtructive. We being willing to give Encouragement to all Works that may be of publick Uſe and Benefit, are graciouſly pleaſed to grant unto him the ſaid John Newbery, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, Our Royal Privilege and Licence, for the ſole Printing, Publiſhing, and Vending the ſaid Work ſtrictly forbidding all our Subjects within our Kingdoms and Dominions, to reprint or abridge the ſame; or to import, buy, vend, utter, or diſtribute any Copies thereof, reprinted beyond the Sea, during the Term of Fourteen Years, without the Conſent or Approbation of the ſaid John Newbery, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Eighteenth Day of December, 1744, and in the 18th Year of Our Reign.

By his Majeſty's Command,

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

To the PUBLICK.

This Work, which is principally intended to lead CHILDREN from the very Cradle thro' the moſt polite and uſeful of the Literary Arts and Sciences, is render'd ſo extremely eaſy, inſtructive, and entertaining, that, 'tis hop'd, the Whole will ſeem rather an Amuſement than a Task.

In the firſt Place, a proper Method is taken to open their tender Minds, and give them a Taſte for Letters; after which, their Ideas are enlarg'd by familiar, eaſy, and progreſſive Steps, till they arrive at a tolerable Knowlege of Books and Men.

As the Education of Youth is of ſuch vaſt Conſequence, that Society in general owes its very Being and Support to the having wiſe and prudent Members to inforce the Obſervation of good and virtuous Rules; and of ſuch great Importance to Children in particular, that their Peace and Happineſs in this World, as well as (perhaps) in the next, muſt depend upon it; no Apology need be made for an Attempt of this Kind.

The Author indeed may have Occaſion to plead ſome Excuſe for his Want of Abilities (it being a more difficult Task to adapt Rules to the Genius and Capacities of Children, than is generally imagin'd); but 'twill be Time enough for him to apologize for this when he finds himſelf confuſ'd. And however his new Scheme may ſucceed, he is conſcious to himſelf, that he ſhall at leaſt have the ſecret Satisfaction of endeavouring to do well.

☞ This Work is in great Forwardneſs, and, for the Sake of thoſe who can't afford to lay out much Money at a Time, will be publiſhed in little Volumes bound, at Sixpence each.
